We should not ignore the fact that people voted for getting rid of us: socialist

28 July 2009 | 09:07 | FOCUS News Agency

Sofia. "Bulgaria achieved key strategic goals, it became member of the European Union – something which has not been given for granted by God in the beginning of our term in office and cost great efforts to the entire cabinet. The economic results – there will be no such growth registered over the next 20 years as the one we achieved. There won't be any other mandate with such increase in the incomes as the one during our term in office", said Rumen Ovcharov, chairperson of the Sofia-based structure of the Bulgarian Socialist Party (BSP), in interview to Nova TV.

Thus, in reference to all of the abovementioned, our term in office was successful, the socialist MP said.

As far as the parliamentary elections results are concerned, Rumen Ovcharov said that obviously there are many deep reasons for this result.

"The result cannot be explained with the statements of Ahmed Dogan (leader of the Movement for Rights and Freedoms) in the village of Kochan", Ovcharov said. In his words, this statement led to a wave of dissatisfaction but it was not the major reason to explain the result.

"We should not close our eyes before the fact that people casted their vote to get rid of us", Ovcharov remarked. For a couple of weeks, BSP turned into a byword for irresponsiveness, for negativity, he said. According to Ovcharov, there are deeper reasons which affected the elections results, which come as a result of the overall activity in the party and in the parliament over the four-year term in office and even before that.
